

Image Category: This category is for dividing out whether Legrain took the images while he was traveling or if he took them at Ur.

Travel: These images are recording Legrain's travels, distinguished by images of vehicles, trees, cities, etc.

Ur: These images are recording Legrain's time at Ur, distinguished by the Ziggurat, Excavations, the Workers, or the Dig House.

Image Subcategory: This category is for recording the main subject of the picture.

Landscape: This category is for recording landscapes, usually with no people, or buildings, may have one person far away.

People: This category is for recording pictures of people, either single or in larger groups.

Archaeology: This category is for recording pictures of archaeological sites, not including Ur.

Excavation: This category is for recording pictures of excavation at Ur, including the Ziggurat.

Illustration: This category is for recording Legrain's Illustrations of his travels and at Ur.

City-Scape: This category is for recording pictures of cities and villages, conglomerations of groups of buildings.

Image Description: This category is for a one to two sentence description of the picture.

Legrain Image Tags: This category is for tagging any subject in the picture. You can tag as many subjects as you see fit.

1. Animals: This category includes all animals.
  - a. Bird: This category includes all birds, especially ducks.
  - b. Camel: This category includes all camels.
  - c. Cat: This category includes all cats.
  - d. Dog: This category includes all dogs.
  - e. Donkey: This category includes all donkeys.
  - f. Horse: This category includes all horses.
  - g. Sheep/Goats: This category includes all sheep and goats.
2. Building/s: This category includes all buildings
  - a. Ancient: This category includes all ancient buildings.
    - i. Columns: This category includes all free standing columns, usually denoting Palmyra.
    - ii. Ruins: This category includes the ruins in archaeological shots.
    - iii. Ziggurat: This category includes the Ziggurat at Ur.
  - b. Modern: This category includes all modern buildings

- i. City: This category includes all images of buildings that are 2 or more stories tall, usually out of wood or stone.
    - ii. Dig House: This category includes all images of the Dig House.
    - iii. Village: This category includes all images of buildings that are one story, usually out of mud brick.
  - c. Interior: This category includes all insides of buildings.
- 3. Landscape: This category includes all natural elements in photos.
  - a. Mountains: This category includes all mountains.
  - b. Trees: This category includes all trees.
  - c. Water: This category includes all water.
    - i. Harbor: This category includes all harbors
    - ii. River: This category includes all rivers, usually not the full image.
- 4. People: This category includes all people.
  - a. Africans: This category includes all people of African descent, usually dress in white.
  - b. Children: This category includes all Children.
  - c. Expedition Staff: This category includes people on the expedition staff.
    - i. Gertrude Bell: She was the Director of Antiquities attache for Ur.
    - ii. Hamoudi: Hamoudi was the Forman at Ur, from Syria.
    - iii. Ibrahim: He was the assistant Forman at Ur, Hamoudi's son.
    - iv. Katharine Woolley: She was the artist and assistant, also wife of Woolley.
    - v. Leon Legrain: He was the epigraphist for the expedition.
    - vi. Max Mallowan: He was the general assistant for the expedition.
    - vii. Leonard Woolley: He was the director of the expedition.
    - viii. Yahia: He was the photographer at Ur, Hamoudi's son.
  - d. Female: This category includes all females
  - e. Iraqis: This category includes all people of Iraqi nationality.
    - i. Workers: This category includes the workers at Ur.
  - f. Male: This category includes all males.
  - g. Turks: This category includes all people of Turkish descent, usually wearing a fez.
  - h. Western Visitors: This category includes all people in western dress.
- 5. Transport: This category includes all methods of transport.
  - a. Boat: This category includes all boats, including sailboats, row boats, and submarines.
  - b. Bridge: This category includes all bridges
  - c. Car: This category includes all cars
  - d. Cart: This category includes all carts.
  - e. Train: This category includes all trains